

Reseller Program

Jovian offers an outstanding business proposition to its Channel Partners. The product line addresses today's top IT concerns, the products are easy to install and to maintain, and your profitability will be greatly enhanced by becoming a Jovian Channel Partner.

Our mission is to provide the Value Added Resellers (VARs) and their customers with a save-more-get-more email solution. Jovian believes that VARs have developed long term relationships with their customers. They are the trusted business/technical advisers, who can eliminate the fears, uncertainties and doubts that customers have towards IT products and services.

To achieve our mission, Jovian is committed to bringing innovative ideas and continuous improvements to our products. Since its first release, Europa has maintained a high standard towards functionality, usability, and affordability. Jovian has worked closely with our VARs to incorporate many valuable features and product enhancements. As a result, Europa continues to evolve and better serves the end customers.

Our Channel Partner Program includes:

- Priority Technical Support
 - Toll-free access
 - Email support
- Product Evaluation Program
- Not-for-Resale Program
- 30-day Money Back Guarantee Policy
- Product Training
- No minimum sales commitment
- Excellent financial opportunity
